

Major Eric M. McFadden Deputy District Engineer for Support Operations

Maj. Eric M. McFadden joined the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Baltimore District, in February 2003 as deputy program manager in the D.C. Programs Office. In July 2003, he deployed Baltimore District's first Forward Engineer Support Team to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. In January 2004, he became the deputy district engineer for support operations.

Before arriving in the District, McFadden completed a tour in Germany where he served as an aide-de-camp to the 1st Infantry Division commanding general. Prior to this assignment, McFadden commanded and deployed Alpha Company, 82nd Engineer Battalion (Combat, Mechanized) located in Bamberg, Germany, to Kosovo in support of Operation Joint Guardian. Before assuming his role as a company commander, McFadden was the assistant brigade engineer for 3rd Brigade, 1st Infantry Division in Vilseck, Germany.

McFadden spent his early years at Fort Hood, Texas, where he served with the 20th Engineer Battalion (Combat, Mechanized), 1st Cavalry Division as a line platoon leader, maintenance platoon leader, assault and obstacle platoon leader, support platoon leader and executive officer.

A 1993 graduate of Arizona State University, Tempe, Ariz., with a bachelor of science degree in landscape architecture, he earned his master's degree in construction management in 2002.

McFadden's military education includes the Engineer Officer Basic Course, Infantry Officer Advanced Course and the Combined Arms Services Staff College. His military awards include the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Achievement Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Kosovo Campaign Medal, NATO Medal and the Parachutist Badge.